What if siren was the Real McCoy?

by GLORIA DAVIS

They say that most adults can tell you where they were and what they were doing when the media announced that President John Kennedy had been shot.

If you are a resident of the Village of Antioch and were inside the village limits at 11:30 a.m., on Wednesday, Sept. 9, did you notice anything unusual?

If your answer is no, or that you did notice something out of the ordinary but went about normal business, you could have just gone through a catastrophe and done nothing about it.

At precisely that time, the civil defense warning siren went off. It was not the time that a normal drill or testing was to be expected.

Ed Frazier, local civil defense coordinator called the newspaper, the village hall, the emergency services and the Lake County Emergency Service in case they received any calls, telling them that the siren, which had been faulty, would be tested after being repaired.

To those that had not been informed as to the nature of the siren, it went off just as it would have in the case of a real catastrophe, tornado, or air raid.

What was the reaction of people in Antioch? By and large, they all went about their business as usual, except for a few who called public safety.

Warren Polley, Antioch High School administrator, said that to his knowledge the school was not informed of the testing and that he personally heard it, looked outside, saw nothing to be concerned about and went about the school's business.

Principal Harley Ware, Antioch Lower Grade School, heard it, checked the civil defense "squawk box" which had nothing on it, and called fire and safety to find out what was going on.

Grade School Supt. Don Skidmore said he didn't hear it and Upper Grade School Principal Bill Herbst reported not hearing it, saying, "We usually don't hear the civil defense siren and would expect to be warned by a phone call or through the civil defense 'squawk box'. We received neither.

Although there were children and teachers outside on the playground at the time, they are probably "so inundated by the sound of Antioch's regular emergency sirens," that no attention was paid.

Sister Mary, principal of St. Peter Grade School, said she did hear it and wondered about it at the time, but that it was during their busy lunch time so nothing was done about it.

Several of Antioch's industries had many employees working at the time. Gib Petsky, personnel manager of Quaker Industries, said that as far as he could determine he, nor anyone else at the plant, heard nor paid heed to the warning siren.

Marion Jack, of Prestige Metal, called the newspaper to find out what was going on and was very concerned that the businesses had

Rotary Bar-B-Que, Auction scheduled for Sept. 26

As Friday, Sept. 26 draws near for the annual Antioch Rotary Club's pork chop bar-b-que and auction, Dennis Johnson, chairman, would like people of the area to know how the Antioch Rotary Club is expending its funds.

Of the nearly $10,000 raised in 1980, all the funds were expended to provide either money or materials for projects: Emmons School's gymnasium bleachers; the Antioch Fire Department's Fire Prevention Bureau; the Antioch Park District's outdoor recreation program; Antioch Senior Center's interior decorating; the Allendale School's kitchen; the Evangelical Free Church and the Antioch Methodist Church office supplies and electric typewriters; continued funding of the Antioch Township Library; and as part of their annual holiday program, baskets for needy families of the area at Thanksgiving and emergency funding for those in need at Christmas.

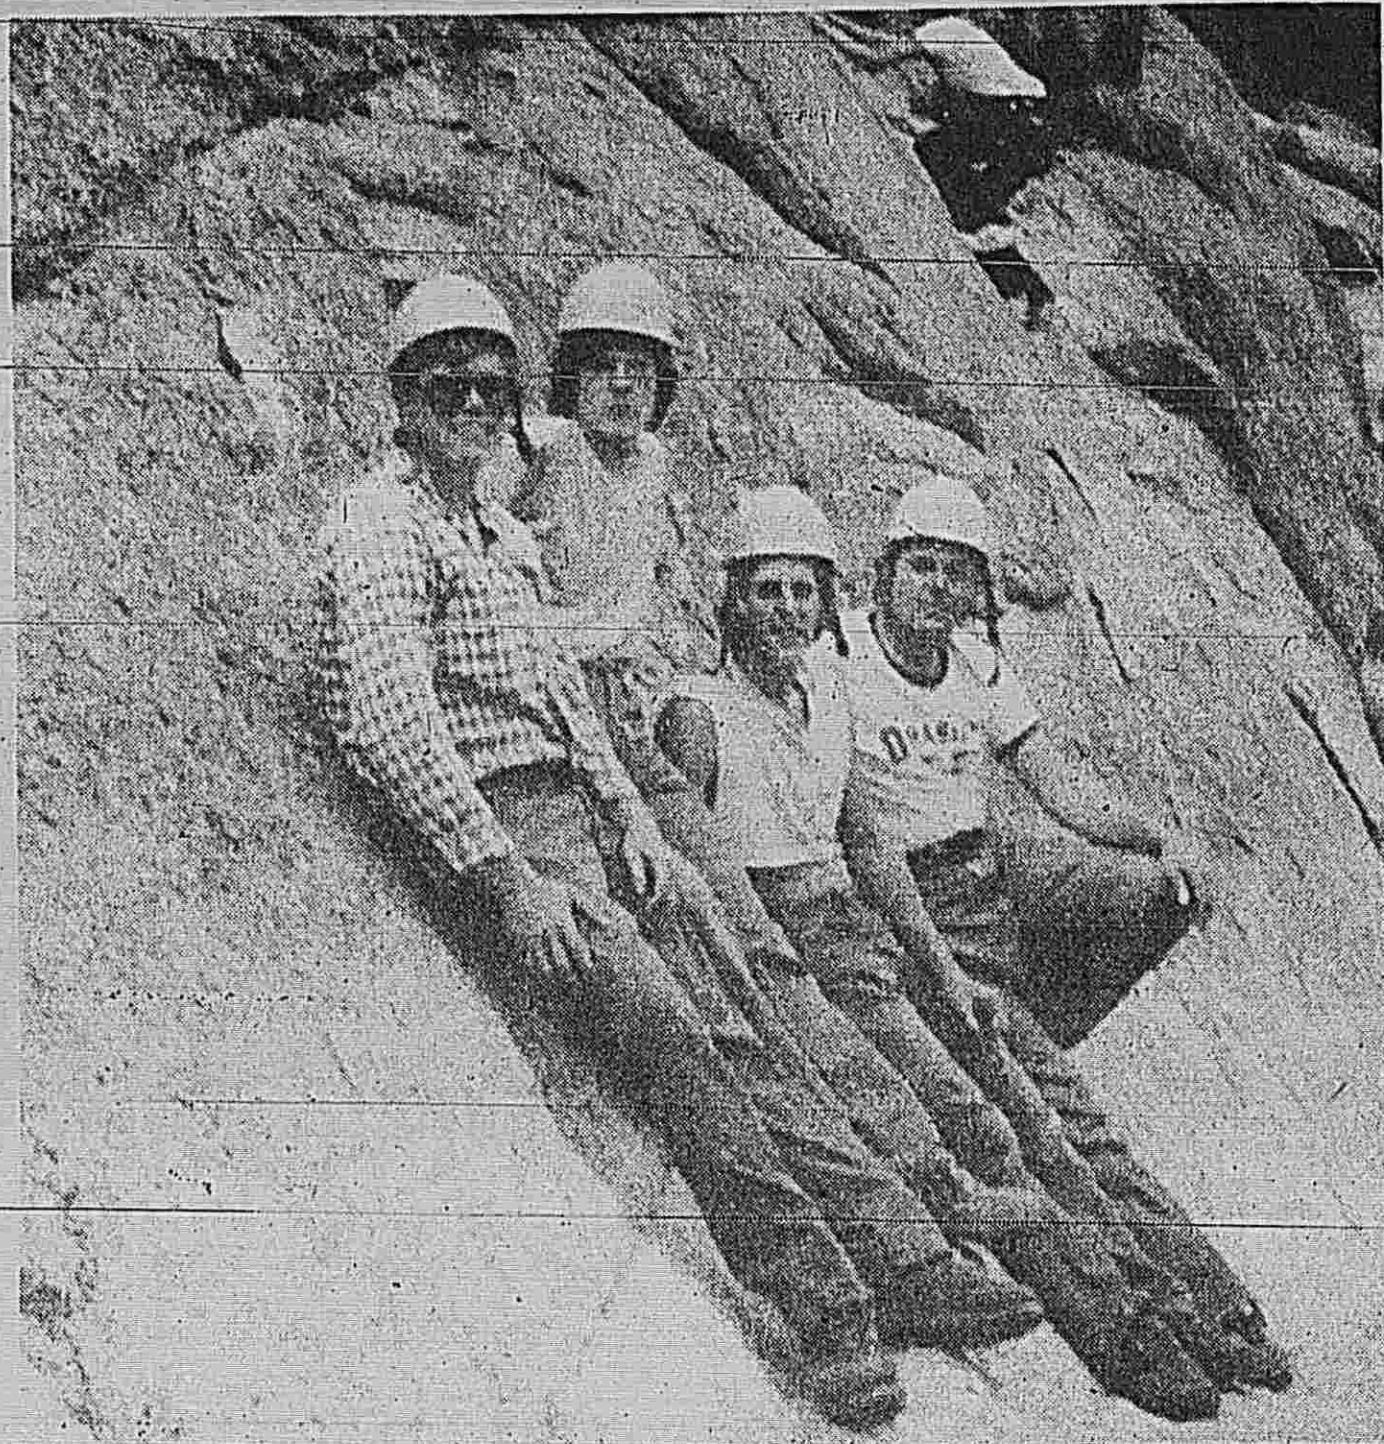

As you can see the money raised from this one annual event has been reinvested in major projects very near and dear to the hearts of those who live in the village and township of Antioch.

Johnson, chairman of the 1981 bar-b-que and auction, is asking each of the citizens to participate and support this project by either buying a dinner ticket priced at only $10, which includes your meal, the auction and entertainment; or buying a $1 ticket from any Rotarian, ten prizes ranging from $150 savings account, a Charmglow portable gas grill, to a new Kodak camera, will be given away.

The Rotary Club of Antioch has long provided funding and support for a multiplicity of community activities including in the past: playground equipment for St. Peter's School; a new electric scoreboard for the Allendale School and over $3,000 in cash and 100 man hours to build the Saw Mill.

So that this type of community support can continue, everyone is urged to participate by buying either a dinner ticket or participate in the fund raiser.

Antioch AARP meets, sets trips

Francis Tomasek, registration chairman, reported that there were 152 people present, including 13 guests.

Blanche Babik, membership chairman, reported that the club had 254 paid members. Membership is now open, since the new meeting place will accommodate 600 people. The only restriction for those joining the club now is that they will not be eligible for the reduced party prices.

Yearly dues are payable January 1, 1982.

All members must wear a pin with their name on it at meetings, or pay a fine of 10 cents. Pins may be ordered from Mary DeVoss for 35 cents. The name pins are necessary to help the members get to know each other.

Dolores Jones, the new regional field representative for Prudential Insurance Co., the new AARP insurance company, gave a talk at the meeting about the different plans offered by the company.

Cecile Mann, the newly elected president of the chapter, conducted her first meeting.

Several members are or were in the hospital. They are Ed Bernau, Stanley Czarnecki, Mary DeVoss, Emily Huber and Norman McKenzie.

Members were saddened to learn that Carlo Cascio had passed away on September 5. Condolences are expressed to his wife, Julia and daughter, Grace Klean.

John Bednarkiewicz, vice president and Illinois Legislature chairman, urged members to write to Gov. James Thompson and ask him to sign House Bill 0781 that will give senior citizens a 15-percent discount on all auto liability insurance when they have graduated from a 55/alive mature driving program.

Glen Peterson, tour chairman, sold tickets for an Oct. 1 trip to House on the Rock and Little Switzerland, the embroidery machine mill. The cost of the trip will include bus fare, lunch and admission to the house. No tickets will be sold by phone. Anyone wanting to purchase a ticket, must get it at the meeting.

Peterson is also planning a trip for Nov. 6 to Christmas Tree House which has moved to West Chicago, near the Morton Arboretum. Several members visited the treehouse last January when it was in Mettawa.

Steve Warneke invited the members to attend the Lake County Council for Seniors Eighth Annual Conference for Older Americans at Mundelein High School, 1350 W. Hawley St., Mundelein on Monday, Oct. 12. Registration begins at 9 a.m. with the conference opening in the auditorium at 9:45 a.m. Cost is $3.50 per person (includes lunch). There will be nine workshops: Money Management for Seniors; Medicare Benefits; You and Taxes; Seniors Who Are Veterans and Veterans Widows; To Your Health; Public Housing for Seniors; Picture in Lake County; Outlook On Older American Act; Insurance, is it Adequate?; and Journey's End. The Round Lake Hotel shots will provide the entertainment.

Troop 92 Boy Scouts rough it

Four members of Antioch's Boy Scout Troop 92 spent an exciting 12 days at Philmont Scout Ranch in Cimarron, New Mexico.

Scouts Paul J. Hettich and Nick Zeien, Assistant Scoutmaster Dave Gade and Committee Member Don Gade were joined by seven other boys from Northeast Illinois Council at Union Station on July 31, where they boarded the Amtrak train for Raton, New Mexico.

Arriving in Raton 24 hours later, they boarded buses for Philmont Scout Ranch. Philmont is a national camping area owned and operated by the Boy Scouts of America and has 137,493 acres, or about 215 square miles of rugged mountain wilderness in the Sangre de Cristo range of the Rocky Mountains.

Philmont has high mountains which dominate rough terrain with an elevation ranging from 6,500 to 12,441 feet. The first day was spent at Philmont's headquarters, tent city. The expedition learned of the history of Philmont and also went to Villa Philmonte — the former summer home of Waite Phillips who donated much of Philmont to the Boy Scouts of America.

The following day the crew started out on their expedition which consisted of 60 miles of backpacking into the mountains. As part of their itinerary they stopped at many different camps where they took part in such activities as: burro racing, rock climbing and repelling, gold mining and panning, mine tour, blacksmithing, black powder rifle shooting, Rocky Mountain fur company tour, fishing, and horseback riding.

One of the highlights of the trip was the climbing of Mount Phillips which is the third highest mountain in New Mexico at 11,711 feet. Philmont has considerable wildlife and the group was able to see buffalo, deer, bear and a sidewinder.

Though plagued by unusual rain, once 36 hours nonstop, the crew thoroughly enjoyed their adventure, Hettich said.

Real McCoy

not been informed and also about what would have happened if it had been the real thing.

Jim Ogura, Regal China's plant manager, reported knowing nothing about it and the switchboard operator, Evelyn Beard, claims to have found out about it when she later went home for lunch and her husband mentioned it to her.

If this had been the real thing, and it could very well have been, it looks like most of Antioch sailed through what could have been a disastrous situation either ignorant of it or paying little or no attention to it.

How many would have been injured or killed if it had been the real McCoy? There's probably no way of knowing until it really does happen.

It may be, that in this day of constant noises, fire rescue and police sirens, plus what have you, any such warning should be so unusual as to make us pay more attention.

On paper, a large percentage of Antioch was wiped off the map last Wednesday and most Antiochans don't even know it.

Open dates near

A field of upwards of 60 golfers is registered for the annual Antioch Open Golf Tournament planned for this coming weekend, Saturday and Sunday, Sept. 19-20 at Harbor Ridge Country Club in Antioch.

"We'll accept entries through Thursday (Sept. 17)," Al Zuehlendorf, Harbor Ridge pro and co-director of the tournament. "Golfers can call on Friday (Sept. 18) for their teeoff times."

A special menu will be offered in the dining room at Harbor Ridge. The "Open Specials" include hamburger, cheeseburger, corned beef on rye or cheese on rye.

The drink or food ticket which each participant in the tournament receives may be used toward one of the specials, Zuehlendorf said.

The 36-hole tournament sponsored by the Antioch News and Harbor Ridge will have teeoff times at 8 a.m. each day.

"We encourage spectators to come out and watch the tournament," Zuehlendorf said. "Late entries are also encouraged, both men and women."

The awards ceremony will take place at approximately 5:30 or 6 p.m. on Sunday at the clubhouse.

"We're looking forward to a great tournament featuring some of the best amateur golfers in the area," Zuehlendorf. "Now all we need is the weather."

Tuesdays' match season's end

As the season draws to a close and only one more match remains before position day, it's still a very tight race for first place in the State Bank of Antioch Women's Golf League.

Currently Team No. 10, Trudy Anderson, Dorothy Teister, Jean Karas and Ginny Troeger is on top with 43½ points.

Team No. 9, Eileen Zannini, Lorraine Hitchon, Ann St. Pierre and Lorraine Santi, are second with 43 points and Team No. 1, Joan Casey, Esther Jacobsen, Louise Vos and Elma Ellis, are third with 42 points.

Next Tuesday should be an exciting day!

Special event for the day was "most putts" and prizes for this dubious honor went to Eileen Zannini, Flight A; Dorothy Teister, Flight B; Lorraine Stieber, Flight C; and Janice Hagstrom, Flight D.

Trust seminar a success

Approximately 165 individuals recently attended an estate planning seminar sponsored by the Antioch Trust Co. The program, held at the Harbor Ridge Country Club was entitled, Estate Tax Changes and Investment Alternatives.

Paul Pavelski, president of the trust company, stated that the overwhelming response to the program is indicative of the fact that people desire information on the new tax law and investments.

In addition to Pavelski, the speakers included Mary Ann Hartwick of the law firm of Overholser, Flannery and Hoover of Libertyville.

Hartwick addressed the group on why wills are necessary and how to ease the burdens of probate.

Harold Collins of the law firm of Harold E. Collins and Associates, Ltd. spoke on insured investment alternatives as well as the new tax changes and investments.

Laddie Korecek, of Antioch Savings and Loan Association, discussed the "All Savers Certificate", a tax-incentive investment.

A question and answer session followed the program which encompassed various related subjects. Because of the favorable results of this program, Pavelski stated that the Antioch Trust Company will continue to hold these sessions.

Those individuals who wish to receive more information about wills, trusts, or future programs, should call the Antioch Trust Company at (312) 395-8500.

50 YEARS AGO: SEPTEMBER 17, 1931

Ignace Lucas, Antioch farmer, is in the Lake County Hospital today. He had just cranked a Ford car belonging to Tony Walski and as he stepped around to the side of the car he was struck by a car driven by George Malek, sustaining several fractures of the bones of his legs. Intense fog made vision extremely difficult, and the accident was unavoidable. Malek brought the injured man to the office of Dr. Beebe for first aid and he was later removed to the hospital so x-ray pictures could be made.

A report comes from Bob Mann while vacationing in northern Wisconsin that he caught a 20-pound muskie. Better have a picture taken of that fish.

The new Lake Villa Township Library is open in the village hall every Tuesday and Saturday afternoon from 2 to 5.

10 YEARS AGO: SEPTEMBER 8, 1971

President Richard Nixon, writing from the Western White House at San Clemente, Calif., has expressed his support for the re-election of Congressman Robert McClory in the November elections.

Ellen McDowall, Antioch, will be one of the twelve award winning artists, from the Illinois State Fair Professional Art Exhibit whose work will be shown during the month of September at First Federal Savings of Chicago.

Women and girls who like to sew are invited to compete in the Make It Yourself With Wool contest which features a list of prizes, including a vacation trip to Europe, college scholarships and valuable merchandise.

Give seniors a chance

Antioch is much too progressive and well-rounded to dismiss a senior citizens housing project with little more than a cursory glance. We happen to think the inquiry into senior citizens housing was hasty and incomplete.

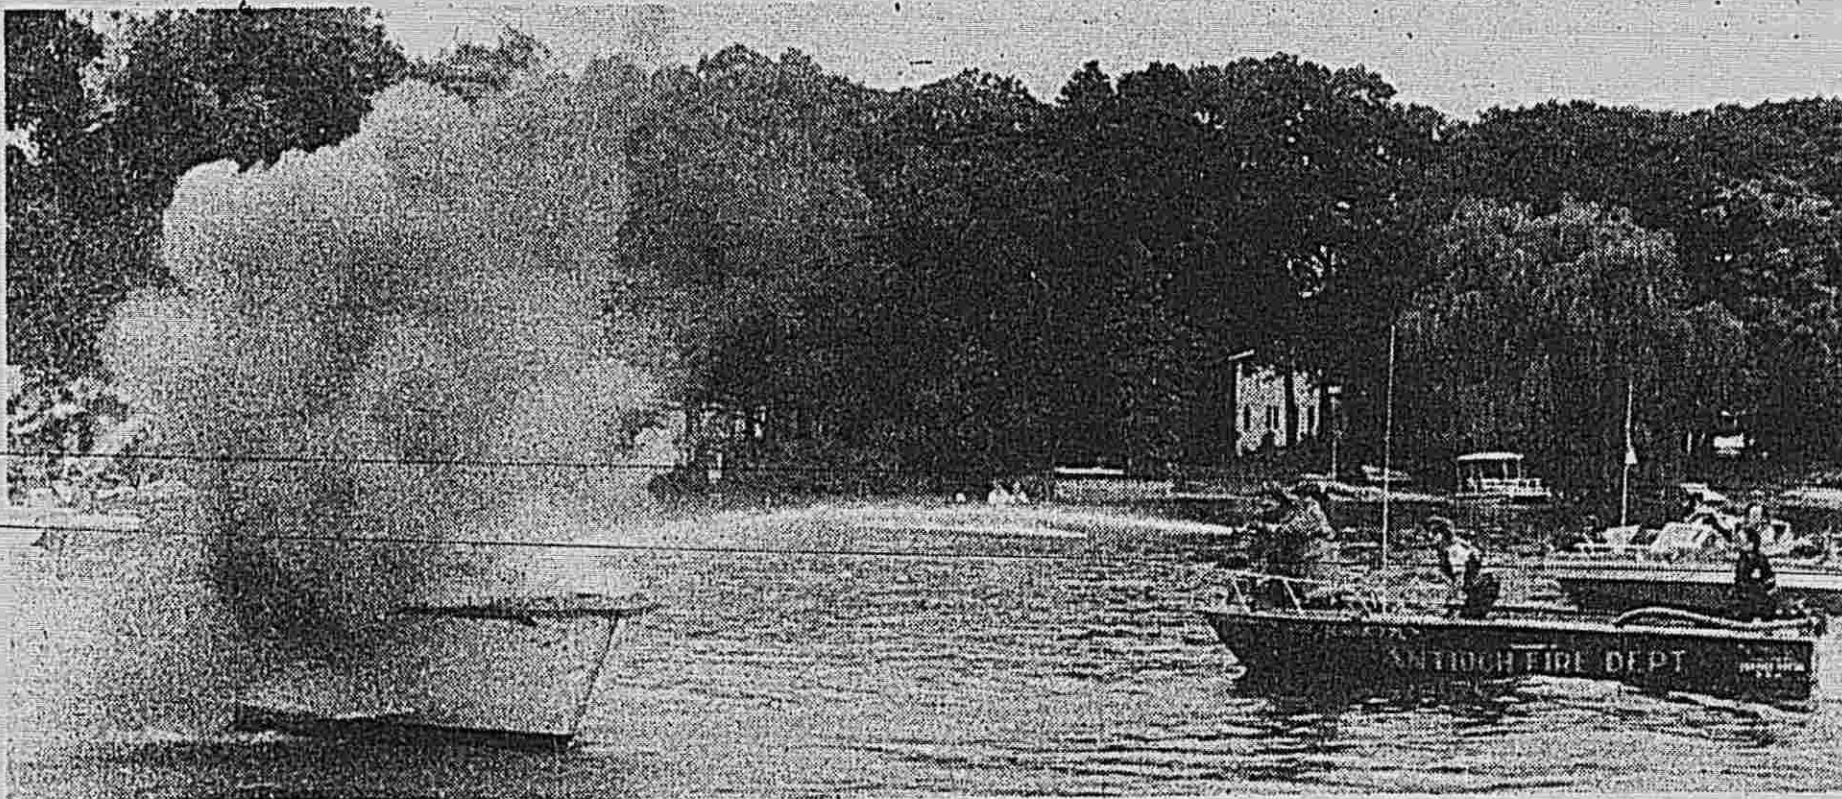

A survey conducted by Trustee Claudette Skvarce, in our opinion, tended to put a wrong slant on the proposition. With the phrase "low income housing" brandished in front of them, it's not surprising that a lopsided majority of citizens advised to "steer clear."

As we understand it, however, the portion of the Lake County Housing Authority proposal reserved for non-elderly is based on income stratification. A more correct description of the non-senior citizens portion — one fifth — is "rental subsidy". The persons in this category are not inner-city slum rejects, as the survey might have been perceived by some citizens. And they are carefully screened by housing operators before granted leases.

One of the intriguing facts about senior citizens housing is the impact on downtown business districts. Because of requirements that senior housing be located as conveniently as possible to shopping and municipal services, units usually are located adjacent to shopping areas. Antioch's retail sales headaches have been well chronicled in the K-Mart shopping center controversy. A senior citizens housing project, without a doubt, should be welcomed with open arms.

Antioch officials would do well to count to five — or 10 — and start all over on a study of senior citizens housing as outlined by the housing authority. At the same time, more effort should be put into an effort to acquaint the public with what senior citizen housing and rental subsidy programs entail. Give senior housing a chance. Let's take a second look.

FIRE DEPARTMENT IN SEA RESCUE — Antioch Fire Dept. and U.S. Coast Guard gave sea rescue demonstration by putting out boat on fire at Bluff Lake Boardwalk, on Saturday, Sept. 5. An example of a helicopter rescue was also given by dropping man in water and rescuing him by helicopter.

Sequoits bow to Tigers 10-6, in season opener

The Antioch Sequoit varsity football team isn't off to a booming start, having bowed to Crystal Lake, 10-6, in their season opener.

Although the Crystal Lake Central Tigers are not in the Northwest Suburban Conference, their win over Antioch might dampen the spirits of the Sequoit fans who are looking forward to Antioch bettering last season's 4-3 conference record.

The Tigers, ranked among the top 25 high school teams in the state, put three points on the scoreboard, with 11 seconds left in the first quarter, when Adam Jacoby put a 20 yard field goal through the goal posts.

Neither team scored during the second quarter, so the score at the end of the first half was 3-0, with the Tigers in the lead.

The Sequoits were recharged in the second half however, with a 65 yard touchdown drive putting them on the scoreboard.

Matt Stevens, Antioch running back, took the kickoff from the three yard line to the Antioch 35.

A pass from Tom Adams to Derek Olsen gave the Sequoits another 22 yards and Mike Kotlinsky ran another 13 yards.

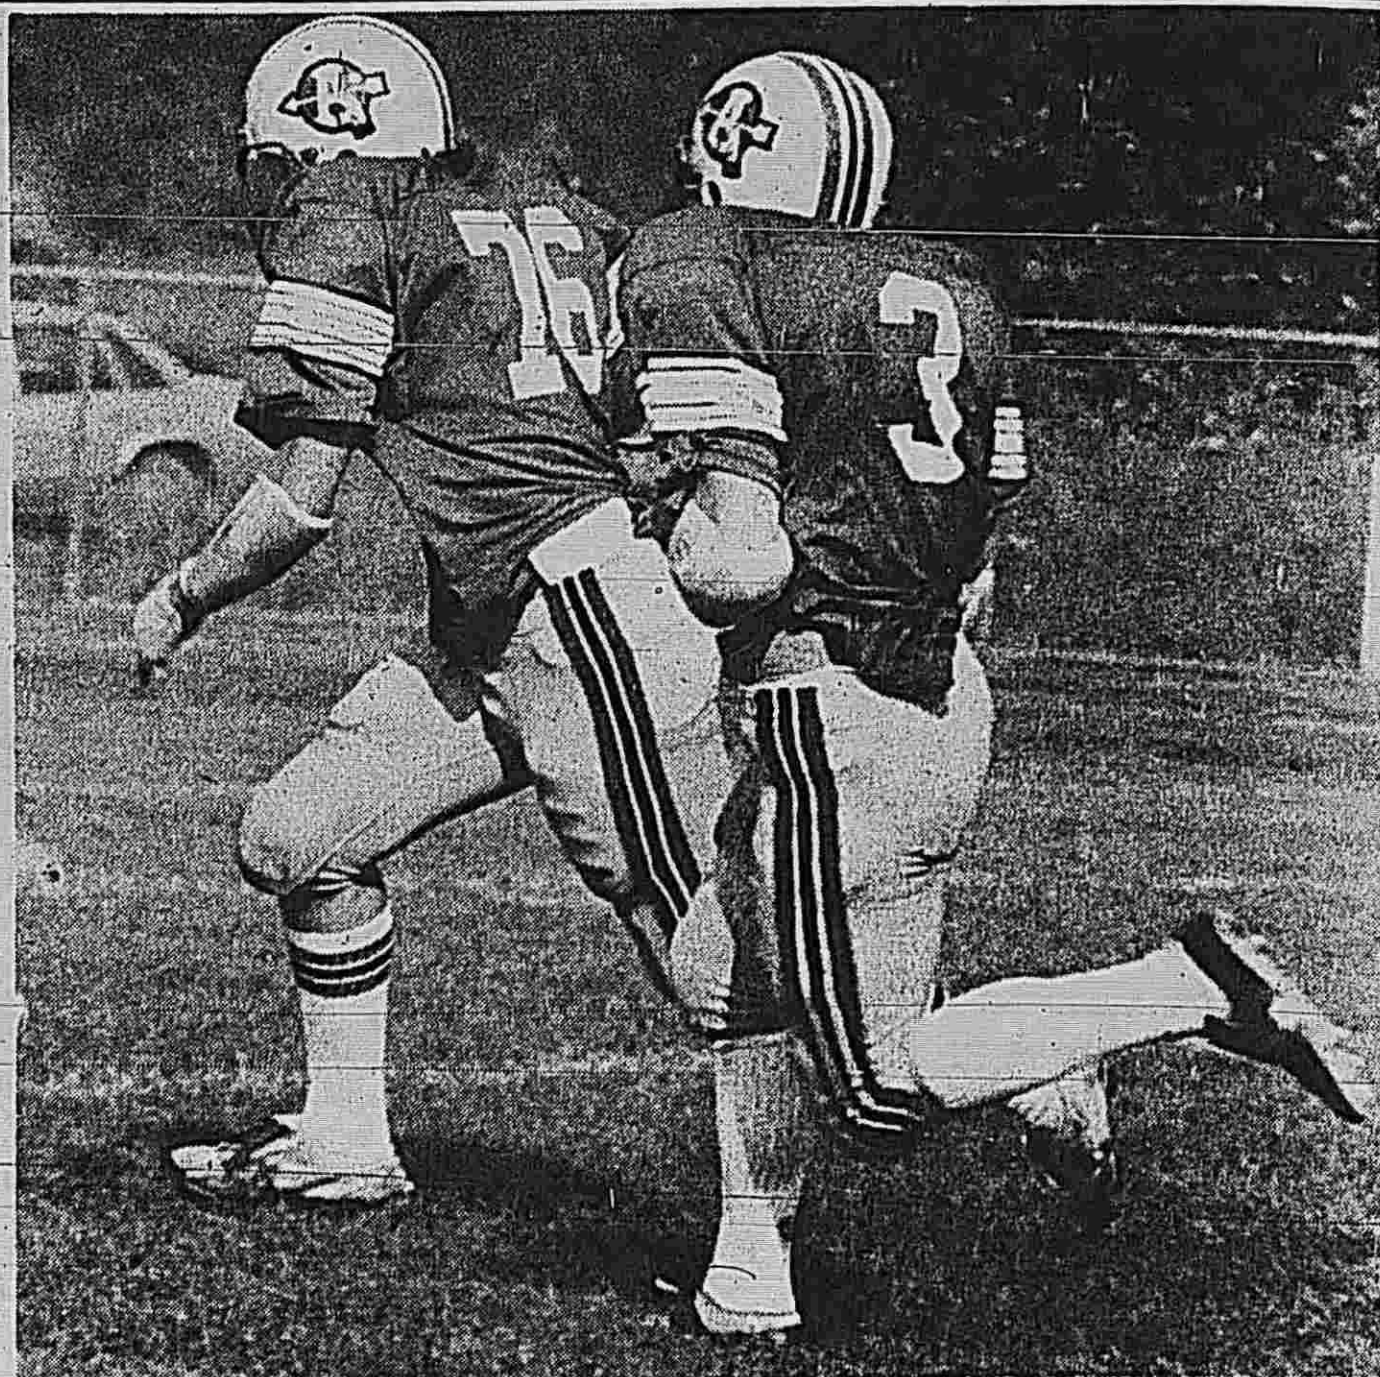

After two more pass attempts, a third pass from Adams to Bob Thain and two seven yard runs by Kotlinsky, the Sequoits scored their one and only touchdown, with the extra point missing the target.

The Tigers came back in the fourth quarter with a fourth down play, a completed 33 yard pass that was the key to their final touchdown.

A pass from Crystal Lake's Tom Scheiner to Bill Stovall took the Tigers over. The point after touchdown was good, locking the game up for Crystal Lake, 10-6.

The Sequoits play the Woodstock Blue Streaks, at Woodstock, 8 p.m., Friday, Sept. 18.

The sophomores kick-off at 6 p.m.

'Carousel' to open Sept. 19

Even though it is September, June will soon be bustin' out all over at the PM&L Theater, 877 Main St., in Antioch.

The Rodgers and Hammerstein musical comedy, "Carousel," will open there Saturday night, Sept. 19.

Later performances will take place Friday and Saturday nights, Sept. 25 and 26, and Oct. 2 and 3.

Also, a matinee presentation, an increasingly popular feature of PM&L's play schedule, is set for Sunday afternoon, Sept. 27.

Curtain time is 8:30 p.m. for the evening shows and 2:30 p.m. for the Sunday matinee.

Long famous for their winning combination of hit tunes and rousing lyrics, Rodgers and Hammerstein have written some of their most successful songs into "Carousel."

Some of the best-known of the production's musical numbers include "June Is Bustin' out all over," "If I Loved You," and "You'll Never Walk Alone."

"Carousel" is based on Ferenc Molnar's play "Liliom." The show tells the strong and simple story of a circus performer (played in the PM&L production by Peter Thelen of Spring Grove) and a girl (Shannon Sherwood, Silver Lake) whose remarkable love for each other transcends death.

Other leading players in the PM&L production, which is directed by Tom Hausman, include Rosaline Trusky of Winthrop Harbor as Carrie; Mark Badtke, Wilmet, as Enoch Snow; Bruce Stamm, Antioch, as Jigger; and Donna Badtke, Wilmet, as Nettie. The large, volatile, and talented cast of actors, singers, and dancers also contains Bill Seemann, Irene Hahn, Stephen Biel, George Blanksten, Sue Butte, Bill and Dee Baum, Jane and Amy, Haysman, Rosemary Scheske, Diana DiGiovanni, Susan Hubbard, and Mike Giebelhaus of Antioch; Larry and Jonelle Bullman, Cathy Hackney, and Bob and Colleen Mallowney, Fox Lake; Sandy Jones, Round Lake; Lillian Allen, Trevor; Al Kessie, Richmond; Tom Badtke, Wilmet; Sharon Yeh and Kelly Quinn, Twin Lakes; Dawn Perry and Wes Underwood of Gurnee; Steve Sposato, George Cina, and Robert Stewart, McHenry; and, from Salem, Paul Mateer.

A large, rousing, and tuneful production, "Carousel" is the proper show to start off PM&L's 21st year of producing first-rate shows.

You should not lose any more time in making your reservations to see this opening show of the new theater season.

To do so, be sure to call (312) 395-3055 for your reservations.

You are also well-advised to be at the PM&L box office no later than 8:15 p.m. on the night, or 2:15 p.m. on the afternoon, you plan to take part in the launching of PM&L's 21st season.

PM&L MUSICAL TO OPEN — "Carousel" will play at the PM&L theater on Main St. Sept. 19, 25, 26, 27 and Oct. 2 and 3. Above scene shows, Mr. Snow, played by Mark Badtke, looking askance as his girl, Carrie, played by Roz Trusky, is abducted by Jigger, played by Bruce Stamm.

TOGETHER 50 YEARS — Anthony and Dorothy Puleo, Grass Lake Rd., will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary at 3:30 p.m. Mass. at St. Peters Church, on Sunday, Sept. 20. Reception will be held for friends and relatives at the Country House following the church ceremony. — Photo by Gloria Davis

INTRODUCING THE NIGHT SHIFT.

Maybe you never noticed it, but during the day people use a lot of electricity.

It usually takes everything we've got, even our expensive oil burners, to keep up with the demand. So electricity costs a lot more to make. And people have to pay more for it.

That's why Ice Storage, a revolutionary cooling system for big buildings, is better than regular air conditioning.

It works at night instead, when the demand for electricity goes way down and our main generating stations, the ones that run on low-cost coal and uranium, hardly work up a sweat. And electricity costs up to four-and-a-half times less to make.

All night long, it creates ice. And cold. And more ice. And more cold. Enough to keep an army of Eskimos feeling right at home. So when 8 a.m. rolls around and the day shift is ready to face another hot one, all that cold is ready too. Ready to circulate through the building and keep everybody cool till the sun goes down.

For sure, we'll all be a lot better off when there are more innovations like the Ice Storage system. That's why we're researching and developing other ideas to slow the growing daytime demand for electricity, especially in the summer.

In the meantime, if we can all do a little something to put off using electricity during the day, like not running the dishwasher or clothes dryer until 9 or 10 p.m., it can make a difference now.

Shifting some of the demand to night can keep costs down. And just maybe, help us all get some control over tomorrow.

Chaplaincy service offering many senior services

Chain O'Lakes Senior Services is a program sponsored by The Chaplaincy Service, Inc., an interdenominational, not-for-profit organization founded in 1963.

The Chain O'Lakes Senior Services program began in July, 1975 to assist older persons in living and staying in their own homes and familiar surroundings.

In some instances, these support services can be the difference between staying in the home environment and premature or unnecessary institutionalization.

Any older person, age 60 and over, is eligible for these services, especially if they have less alternatives and resources than others.

The program offers the following support services: TRANSPORTATION (by appointment), to drive older persons to doctor appointments, grocery shopping, and various social functions. This is a door-to-door service and appointments must be made at least one day in advance. There is no fee, however, we do ask for donations.

MEALS-WITH-WHEELS, to provide home-bound elderly a hot nutritious lunch, five days a week. In some cases, special supper and weekend meals are available.

TELECARE, to call older persons five days a week, to check on them to see if they are all right, and to provide some human contact. Emergency procedures are taken when necessary.

FRIENDLY VISITS, to visit those who want and need more companionship.

OUTREACH, to locate isolated elderly and inform them of benefits and services available to them.

Chain O'Lakes Senior Services has three offices: in Antioch, 848 Main St., Antioch; in Round Lake, 1316 Cedar Lake Rd., Round Lake Beach; and in Wauconda, 200 S. Barrington Rd., Wauconda.

Phones are: (312) 395-5161 and (312) 395-5162 in Antioch; (312) 546-0020 and (312) 546-0021 in Round Lake Beach; in Wauconda, (312) 526-8688 and (312) 526-8689.

Areas served are: Antioch, Fox Lake, Lake Villa, Lindenhurst, Spring Grove, Round Lake area, Grayslake, Ingleside, Wauconda, Island Lake, Barrington, Lake Zurich and Mundelein.

Volunteers are needed to drive for meals-with-wheels, do telecare calling, office work and both outreach and friendly visits.

You give only the time you can afford. Please call one of our offices if you are thinking of volunteering.

Donations are essential and checks should be made out to "Chain O'Lakes Senior Services" and sent to any of the above offices addresses.

Speaking engagements are featured and we will be happy to speak to your club or group, just give us a call.

A woman's place

When I think about it

It's just garbage

by GLORIA DAVIS

Getting rid of garbage has become a real project and sometimes an expensive one. First there's the cost of the plastic trash bags and their collection.

Then, since most people are lucky if they have their garbage bags picked up once a week, there's the problem of where to store those that are filled until pick-up day.

Having no garage, and being afraid to put the plastic bags outside where animals can tear into them and strew the refuse all over the place, I often find them stocked in my entry hall.

Now I've tried arranging them geometrically, tying them with brightly colored ribbons, decorating them with flowers and I even took to handpainting one, but somehow they still fall short of being a decorator's dream.

I have a friend that has a compactor that she swears by, ending up with one small neat container every week.

But machines of any kind and I are enemies of long standing and I have the feeling that I would somehow get sucked into that little hole and end up 6 inches tall.

This I can't afford. I already weigh too much for my height.

The garbage truck comes our way early in the morning and rushing to get those heavy bags out there before its arrival is a real challenge since the entire household is busy fighting for the bathrooms before leaving for work at that same time.

So if you see some crazy woman in a bathrobe and heels yelling and running after a garbage truck with a trash bag slung over each shoulder at 6 a.m. some Wednesday morning, just ignore her she'll go away, at least until next Wednesday.

Environmentalists screams have made burning paper products a major felony and making use of the local transfer station, (garbage dump to those of you who do not attend municipal meetings) is now a bigger deal than sending a rocket to the moon.

I never thought I would see the day when my prized pass to the dump would have an honored place in my wallet right next to my American Express Card.

With refuse piling up all over the place, manufacturers and our own innate laziness are making disposable products more and more popular, without thought as to where and how they will be disposed of.

Besides the paper and plastic plates, cups, cutlery, napkins, towels, and diapers, we now toss away milk and pop bottles, pens, lighters, flashlights and one time aprons, dresses and even underwear are on the market, not to mention the disposable needles, sheets, etc. used by the hospitals and nursing homes.

The convenience the throw aways afford us is great but, the way things are going, I don't think we have the worry about invaders from "outer space," when our downfall will probably come because we've run "out of space," garbage space that is.

Plan water quality confabs

Discussed at the workshops will be six alternative plans for flood damage reduction and water quality. Comments expressed at the meetings will be considered in selecting a plan for further development, according to Mike Gregory, the Corps' Fox River Study manager.

The first of the plans is nonstructural in approach, consisting of floodproofing measures such as elevating homes and installing a flood-warning and forecasting network in the Fox River-Chain O'Lakes area. The second plan calls for modifying the dams between Yorkville Dam and Algonquin Dam. Modifications would include removing some dams, cutting notches in others and installing gate structures and providing canoe shoots at some dams. The third plan consists of construction of local protection levees.

Included in the fourth plan are modifications to McHenry Dam such as providing additional gate capacity.

The first person known to have swum the English Channel was Matthew Webb, who performed the feat in August, 1875.

SENIORS CELEBRATE ANNIVERSARY — Area senior citizens had a gala affair in honor of the sixth anniversary of Antioch's Senior Center and the first anniversary of the new center. Party was held at new center on Friday, Sept. 11. — Photo by Gloria Davis

Despite fog and mud, 227 shoot targets'

In spite of rain, fog and mud, 227 bowhunters registered for the Northern Illini Bowmen's (NIB) "Jack Perry" Broadhead shoot. Out of a possible 570 points, NIB's pro-shooter Rick Meissner of Chicago scored a 503, for the highest score of the shoot.

Men's sight shooter Jim Hodgins of Hawthorn Woods took first, scoring 481. The second place trophy went to Sam Ruffalo of Racine, with 473, and third place went to Jim Gardley of Auroraland Archers with a close 472.

Jim VanCleve of Round Lake won a first place in barebow, shooting 460 with Marv Eisenhauer of Antioch and Rock Mielke of Round Lake pushing a close second and third with 457 each.

First place women shooting with sights was taken by Mickey Blevins of Chicago with a 322. Second place went to Irene Trumble of Woodstock with 298 and third went to Avis Polasik of Chicago with 256. All the women are members of NIB.

Women shooting without sights did an about face with broadheads. Sharon Williamson of Waukegan shot 397. Holly Carner of the Rockford area took second with a 294, and third went to Marge Ostendorf of Waukegan with 286.

Youth boys with sights did well with a 376, shot by Mike Nelson of Chicago and Mike Zawaski shooting a 97. Barebow youth winners are all from Round Lake area: Jeff Ramlow shot 319, Jeff VanCleve, 292 and his brother John, 250.

Cubs 11-years-old and under shot the shoot with their field tips. Boys with pins, first place, went to Steve Obert with a 230, second to his brother Scott with 218. Both are from Kenosha. Doug Dortch won third with 193.

Barebow cub winners were all from Round Lake and NIB. Jedd McCue placed first with 291, brother Gerry second with 127 and Gary Mielke shot 116.

Barebow cub girl winners were Sandy Carlson, also of Round Lake, with 298 and Kelly Stankiewicz of Waukegan with 239.

Every Wednesday evening NIB hunters get together to practice broadhead shooting in a league. At 8 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 17, Northern Illini Bowmen will meet at their field range, two miles north of Lake Villa on Rte. 83. Saturday, Sept. 19 is the big day everyone is practicing for — Wisconsin archery deer season opens at 6 a.m.!

County doubles narcotics seizures

"Drug abuse and related crimes is a leading concern among all citizens," Lake County Sheriff Thomas S. Brown stated, "and at the beginning of my term as sheriff, I promised the residents of Lake County that I would do something about it. To date, we have seized almost $1 million of illicit narcotics within county boundaries. This figure just about doubles the total amount of drugs seized during the previous administration's four-year term, and we still have one and a half years to go."

Brown made the statement when he released data on the success of the restructured Narcotics Unit of the Lake County Sheriff's Office.

Asked to comment on what changes have been made in the Narcotics Division,

Brown stated, "More emphasis has been placed on putting the narcotics officers on the street 24 hours a day rather than attempting to handle a division such as this on a 9 to 5 basis."

Brown continued to say that much of the Narcotics Unit functions can be measured by the conviction rate and he announced that, under his direction, the current conviction rate of narcotics offenders is 86.66 percent.

Thousands of dollars of paraphernalia has been seized in addition to the narcotics themselves. In the first five months of 1981 alone, $6,250 worth of stolen property, taken in various burglaries and thefts has been recovered and returned to owners. The property was taken to support drug-users' habits.

One innovation which has assisted in the investigation of narcotics activities, has been the removal of the Narcotics Division offices from the Lake County Sheriff's Office to a confidential location.

Brown stated, "This allows our officers to have contacts with informants and to pursue narcotics investigations privately, without the possibility of visitors to the sheriff's department being aware of their presence and thus endangering their identities."

Brown also disclosed that his Narcotics Unit will receive increased emphasis and support as its enforcement activities are expanded over the next 18 months, to meet head-on what he termed "a national epidemic of illegal drug activity."

Anchor up for new Chain-Fox River agency

The Chain of Lakes-Fox River Commission has scheduled three public hearings to seek public opinion on the proposed Chain of Lakes-Fox River Waterway Management Agency.

Senate Bill 1174, which has already passed the Senate and is now awaiting action in the Illinois House next year, would create such an agency if passed by the Illinois House and signed by the Governor. The bill was drafted by a subcommittee of the Chain of Lakes-Fox River Commission which is now seeking public opinion on the idea.

The three public hearings will be held at: McHenry City Hall, McHenry, Sept. 18, 1 p.m.; Antioch High School, Antioch, Sept. 25, 7 p.m.; and Fox Lake Village Hall, Fox Lake, Sept. 26, 10:30 a.m.

In addition to the hearings, the Chain of Lakes-Fox River Commission mailed out over 20,000 public opinion polls to boat owners and property owners in the Chain of Lakes area between the Wisconsin line and the Algonquin Dam.

State Sen. Jack Schaffer, chairman of the Chain of Lakes-Fox River Commission, indicated, "This proposal came about because many of us are convinced that without an agency of this type, little or nothing will be done in the future to maintain and improve this extremely important natural resource. We have waited over 30 years for help from Washington and Springfield and I think it is obvious to just about everyone that if we are going to preserve this waterway, we are going to have to do it, at least in part, on our own. The proposal includes several safeguards for the public including a strict prohibition against levying a property, sales or income tax.

"The only way the agency would be able to collect money would be through a boat registration fee for motor-powered boats using the Chain of Lakes or Fox River.

"Also, at least 75 percent of the money collected would be required to be used for dredging, water quality projects, and other hands-on projects for the betterment of the waterway," he added.

The agency would be controlled by an elected six-member board who would serve without pay and could receive additional state and federal funding to implement its program.

Schaffer noted that if you have not received a copy of the public opinion poll by Sept. 15 and would like to have one, that you should write to the commission at 56 N. Williams St., Crystal Lake, IL 60014.
